15.7 If the Customer is importing or exporting Goods in shipload quantities or the Customer has limited capacity in any Private Siding where the Goods are to be loaded or off-loaded, the provisions of clauses 11.2 to 11.10 and 15.1 to 15.6 will apply, unless the Customer has made prior Written arrangements with Transnet Freight Rail to accommodate possible rail wagon delays caused by loading or off-loading Goods in shipload quantities or at such Private Siding with limited capacity.

15.8	The time limits for the various types of equipment are as follows: -
15.8.1	rail wagons only	12 hours
15.8.2	freight containers on rail wagons	12 hours
15.8.3	freight containers and tank containers measuring 6 metres or more in length collected/delivered by road	4 hours
15.8.4	freight containers and tank containers measuring 3 metres in length collected/delivered by road	2 hours
15.8.5	if the cartage driver is in attendance upon request of consignor or consignee	15 minutes

15.9 Transnet Freight Rail has implemented a Wagon Performance Optimization (WPO) process and system. The WPO system is a system that will enable monitoring, recording and sign-off of wagon delays and wagon performance by both parties i.e. the Customer and TFR, thereby creating a means of generating evidence of the occurrence of wagon delays in instances where these occur. Both parties will therefore have a means of viewing information about, and collating evidence of wagon delays. The information and evidence generated by the process and system shall be used by TFR in support of claims for Wagon Delay Charges.

15.9.1 The implementation and usage of the automated system is for the benefit of both parties i.e. the Customer and TFR, and it is essential that the system is used by the Customer, and its rules are adhered to and enforced by all parties. The Customer shall, upon being instructed to do so by TFR, download all electronic applications related to the WPO system, and shall thereafter access, sign into, register itself with, and use the WPO system.

15.9.2 Furthermore is it essential that the Customer ensures that its work week/working times, and free periods are disclosed to Transnet Freight Rail in writing, and signed-off by duly authorised representatives. In the absence of such documented and signed-off information, Transnet Freight Rail will apply the conditions stipulated in this Standard Conditions of Carriage.

15.9.3 In the event of a malfunction of the electronic application, then Transnet Freight Rail will revert to all other means, manual or otherwise, that it has available for recording and collating evidence of wagon delays, which it shall be entitled to use in support of claims for Wagon Delay Charges until the electronic application is available for use again.

15.9.4 Demurrage charges for the delaying of rail wagons will be charged in hours and part thereof.

Transnet Freight Rail Standard Conditions of Carriage

16 Overloading And Mass Declared

16.1 The Customer shall not overload wagons (i.e. load wagons in excess of their carrying capacity or modified/amended carrying capacity as prescribed for lines with axle load restrictions); nor under-declare the net mass per wagon (i.e. declare a net mass per wagon that is less than the actual mass of the Goods loaded on the wagon). The Customer is responsible to ensure compliance with this clause by the Customer's Consignor, loader or transport coordinator if applicable.

16.2 The Customer will be liable for Losses (including but not limited to any damage to Transnet Freight Rail's rolling stock and infrastructure and any environmental liability, notwithstanding any other term of these Terms) caused directly or indirectly by such overloading or under-declaration.

16.2.1 The Customer must, in order to avoid overloading, load the rail wagons in accordance with the Loading Profile, if any, set out in or to be set out in a Schedule.

16.3 Overloading

16.3.1 Overloading and/or improper loading of wagons are not permissible and the Customer is prohibited from doing so. Overloading and improper loading are safety risks and may directly lead to, or may be a contributing factor in a rail incident such as a derailment.

16.3.1.1 Transnet Freight Rail reserves all of its rights in terms of this Agreement and the relevant Laws to, inter alia refuse to Transport the overloaded wagons or require the Customer to offload the excess goods/product from the wagon.

16.3.2 Should overloading of a rail wagon in excess of its carrying capacity or modified carrying capacity be detected during or after Transport, the charges calculated on the actual mass conveyed in the rail wagon as determined below, will furthermore be subject to an overload surcharge as listed below.

16.3.3 Rail charge will be calculated using the prevailing rail transport price as set in Schedule of the Agreement using the Customer declared mass on execution or TFR net mass if overload is detected in-transit

(a) if a per ton rail price applies, the rail price payable will be calculated on the actual mass;

(b) if a per rail wagon rail price applies, the rail price payable will be increased by a factor derived by dividing the actual mass transported in the rail wagon by the carrying capacity or the modified carrying capacity of the rail wagon.

(c) plus an overload surcharge as specified in paragraph 16.3.3.1 for paragraph 16.3.3 (a) and (b)

16.3.3.1 An Overload surcharge will be calculated by multiplying the rail price in Paragraph 16.3.3 with the overload surcharge mass (mass loaded in a wagon less the carrying capacity or the modified carrying capacity the lesser of the two, less the technical mass allowance in par 16.6) multiplied with the applicable overload surcharge percentage specified for the overload surcharge mass in par 16.6. where the surcharge mass is greater than zero.

16.4 In the event that there are any provisions in this clause which may qualify as a penalty in terms of the Conventional Penalties Act, 15 of 1962 in relation to any act or omission by the Customer such provision shall not be deemed to preclude Transnet Freight Rail from recovering damages in lieu of the relevant penalty.

16.5 Under-Declaration

16.5.1 The Customer must declare or, if the Customer is not the Consignor, ensure that the Consignor declares the correct net mass of the Goods per rail wagon on the Combined Consignment Note and Wagon Label/Release Pro Forma.

16.5.1.1 Transnet Freight Rail is entitled to verify the mass declared by Mass Measuring each rail wagon prior to, during or after Transport of the Goods. Should Transnet Freight Rail find that the mass per rail wagon has been under declared the amount payable by the Customer will be as set out in clause 16.5.2.

16.5.2 In the event of an under-declaration of mass but the wagon is not overloaded in terms of clause 16.1 above, and the under declared mass is more than the minimum mass specified in the rail price schedule of the agreement the following will apply:

16.5.2.1 Rail charge will be calculated using the prevailing rail transport price as set in Schedule of the Agreement using the TFR net mass if an under declaration is detected in-transit;

(a) if a per ton rail price applies, the rail price payable will be calculated on the TFR net mass;

(b) if a per rail wagon rail price applies, the rail price payable will be increased by a factor derived by dividing the TFR net mass transported in the rail wagon by the carrying capacity or the modified carrying capacity of the rail wagon.

(c) plus an under declaration surcharge as specified in paragraph 16.5.2.2 for paragraph 16.5.2.1 (a) and (b).

16.5.2.2 An under declaration surcharge will be calculated by multiplying the rail price in Paragraph 16.3.3 with the under declared surcharge mass calculated in the following manner:(TFR Net mass less Customer's declared mass, less the technical mass allowance in par 16.6) multiplied with the applicable surcharge percentage specified for the under declared surcharge mass in par 16.6. where the under declared surcharge mass is greater than zero

16.6 Surcharge Mass Intervals And Technical Mass Allowance

Surcharge mass intervals			Surcharge percentage
00000-05000 kg			100%
05001-10000 kg			300%
10001-99999 kg			500%
Overload		Technical allowance mass before overload surcharge calculation	2000kg

Transnet Freight Rail Standard Conditions of Carriage

Under declared		Technical mass allowance before under declaration surcharge calculation	2000kg
Overload Mass	surcharge	Calculation	Customer's declared mass or TFR net mass if detected in transit, less the carrying capacity or the modified carrying capacity the lesser of the two, less the technical mass allowance in par 16.6
Under declared surcharge mass		Calculation	TFR Net mass less Customer's declared mass, less the technical mass allowance in par 16.6

16.7 Where the Customer provides Transnet Freight Rail voluntarily with the actual mass measurement of the wagon (i.e. weighbridge slips) these mass will be used to determine the necessary rail charges and surcharges.

16.8 If Transnet Freight Rail finds that mass has been under declared or that a rail wagon is overloaded, Transnet Freight Rail will raise the necessary charges and surcharges and furnish on their request and where applicable the Customer or the Consignor, with a report of the results.

16.9 Transnet Freight Rail reserves the right to hold back at any time a rail wagon found to be overloaded or improperly loaded (either at the Hand over Point or en route) and Transnet Freight Rail may require the Customer to off-load or arrange to off-load sufficient quantity of the Goods to bring the mass of the rail wagon within the carrying capacity of the rail wagon and or require the Customer to re-arrange the improperly loaded Goods. Wagon Delay Charges as set out in or to be set out in a Schedule, Mass Measuring Fee and all other charges and Additional Costs reasonably attributable to or arising out of the holding back of the rail wagon will be for the Customer's account. Transnet Freight Rail will not be liable for any claims arising out of delays due to overloading or improper loading by the Customer.

16.10 If the Customer wishes to load the excess mass of Goods into another rail wagon, subject to Available Capacity, the applicable rail price stipulated in or to be set out in a Schedule will apply but the carrying capacity of the rail wagon will be used as a minimum.

16.11 In the event that Transnet Freight Rail does not have Available Capacity to accommodate the excess mass of Goods, Transnet Freight Rail shall not be liable for any Loss incurred by the Customer.

16.12 It is advisable for the Customer to have a Verified Mass Measuring Device in the Customer's siding to ensure accurate weighing of the goods to be transported by Transnet Freight Rail. Transnet Freight Rail shall also have its own Mass Measuring Devices installed at specified points. In the event of Transnet Freight Rail measuring the mass of the consignment, the mass measurements from Transnet's Mass Measuring Devices shall prevail.

16.12.1 Weigh bridge slips must be provided, to TFR, in the following manner:

(a) where the data on the weigh bridge slip has been printed directly from the Verified Mass Measuring Device (i.e. the Verified Mass Measuring Device has a built in printer) then the slip of paper that is printed out must be provided to TFR

(b) where the data on the weigh bridge slip has been transmitted directly to a computer from the Verified Mass Measuring Device and has been printed out from the aforementioned computer then such print out must clearly indicate that the data has been received directly from the Verified Mass Measuring Device and printed out.

(c) where the data on the weigh bridge slip has been captured directly from the Verified Mass Measuring Device using any other electronic means, then any print out, resulting from this method, must clearly indicate that the data has been received directly from the Verified Mass Measuring Device.

(d) where the data on the weigh bridge slip has been captured manually from the Verified Mass Measuring Device (i.e. a person records the readings on paper) then such document containing hand-written data: (a) must be signed off by the person recording such data; their full names, designation and name of the company at which they are employed must be clearly stated on the weigh bridge slip and (b) must include a confirmation from such person that the data has been captured directly from the Verified Mass Measuring Device.

16.13 If the Customer disputes the accuracy of TFR's Verified Mass Measuring Device, the Customer may require the accuracy of TFR's device to be verified in accordance with the provisions of the Legal Metrology Act 9 of 2014, and the cost of such verification shall be borne by the Customer.

16.14 In the event where the Customer weigh the empty wagon prior to loading as well as the loaded wagon Transnet Freight Rail will accept the measured masses reflected on the weigh bridge slips and will use these masses to determine the railage as well as any applicable surcharges for overloading.

17. Non-Utilisation And Train Cancellation Charges

17.1 In the event where the Customer only notifies Transnet Freight Rail in writing that wagons will not be used after placement, Transnet Freight Rail shall be entitled to levy non-utilisation charges set out or to be set out in the Schedule.

17.1.1 before rail wagons are Placed;

17.1.2 before the time when rail wagons were available to be Placed, if the Customer is not going to utilize all or some of the rail wagons ordered.

18.13.7 For all seaborne export containers railed from TFR sidings, areas or facilities with no weighbridge facilities or in instances where TFR weighbridge is out of service, customers must declare the Verified Gross Mass (VGM). To TFR as part of their rail documentation/electronic data interchange transactions. In all instances where TFR do not mass measure containers to obtain the weight, copies of printed weighbridge slips must accompany TFR documentation as proof of the VGM. See also clause 16.12.1.

Transnet Freight Rail Standard Conditions of Carriage

40. Termination

40.1 Either Party may terminate this Agreement or any severable portion by giving notice of cancellation in Writing of six(6) Months.

40.2 Transnet Freight Rail may elect to regard this Agreement as cancelled if the Customer has not consigned any Goods to it for Transportation for the period set out or to be set out in a Schedule provided that Transnet Freight Rail has communicated that election to the Customer.

40.3 This Agreement may also be terminated by agreement in Writing setting out the terms of such termination.

40.4 The Confidentiality and Dispute Resolution provisions under these Standard Conditions of Carriage shall survive the termination of any agreement governed by these Standard Conditions of Carriage.

41 Execution

41.1 The Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, which shall each be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute the same Agreement.

41.2 The signatories to the Agreement by their signature warrant their authority to enter into the Agreement and the capacity of their principal, if signing in a representative capacity, to enter into the Agreement.

42. Claim For Costs Arising Out Of Tippler Unavailability

42.1 The Customer acknowledges that fully functioning rail wagon tippers ("tipplers") are critical to TFR in terms of scheduling of rail resources, actual rail transport and associated operations. It is therefore essential that tipplers be fully functional at all times, and tippler maintenance be planned so that alternative tipplers are always available for continuous duty.

42.2 Non-functional tipplers have an adverse impact on TFR which results in wasted costs being incurred by TFR. It is for this reason that TFR shall have the right to invoice the Customer for wasted costs that it (TFR) has incurred as a result of non-functional tipplers of the Customer resulting in delays to, or cancellation of trains, with resultant tonnage losses.

42.3 In order to mitigate the risks mentioned above, the Customer undertakes to plan its tippler maintenance in such a manner that alternative tipplers are always available for continuous duty. A situation where a maintenance delay of a rail wagon tippler results in a delay or cancellation of trains should therefore not occur.

42.4 In the event of tipplers not being functional, resulting in TFR incurring wasted costs, TFR shall furnish the Customer as soon as practicably possible thereafter with a summary of the costs of its wasted resources, including, but not limited to:

- (i) Personnel costs: the total man-hours lost as a result of the cancellation of the scheduled trains;
- (ii) Cost of locomotive(s) and wagons lying idle;
- (iii) Cost of rescheduling train slots;
- (iv) Other costs associated with operational delays;
- (v) Revenue that has been lost due to lost volumes/tonnages.

42.5 Invoicing for the wasted costs shall be dealt with as follows: The costs of wasted resources as described above will be included as separately detailed line items in TFR's monthly invoice to the Customer.

42.6 Notwithstanding the provisions of the sub-clauses above, in the event of the Customer issuing a notice to TFR that it is unable to fulfil its obligations in terms of the originally planned transport due to tippler unavailability, TFR shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate any wasted costs by redeploying personnel, rolling-stock (locomotives and wagons) and other resources to other routes thereby limiting any wasted costs. The likelihood of TFR being able to mitigate its costs is greater if the Customer notifies TFR in writing (which shall include email communications) and in advance if it is unable to fulfil its obligations in terms of the originally planned transport and/or loading and offloading due to its (the Customer's) tipplers being unavailable, however this shall not exclude or limit TFR in any way from claiming wasted costs.

43. Warranties And Covenants

43.1. The Customer warrants to Transnet Freight Rail that–

43.1.1. no proceedings or any other steps have been taken or, to the best of the knowledge of the Customer having made all reasonable enquiries, threatened for the winding-up or liquidation (whether voluntary or involuntary, provisional or final), business rescue or deregistration of the Customer or for the appointment of a liquidator, business rescue practitioner or similar officer over it or over any of its assets.
